

Bharat is the Founder & CEO of FootPath, Inc. a company engaged in IT Integration Solutions, Outsourcing and IT Consulting with specific focus on Wireless Applications and Knowledge Process Outsourcing.

Under the leadership of Bharat, FootPath, Inc. was honored as the Fastest 5000 growing companies in America by the Inc. (www.inc.com) Magazine having a revenue growth of 2226% over 5 years (FY2002-FY2006). Bharat was awarded Top 100 Technology Pioneers by the World Economic Forum (www.weforum.org) in Davos, Switzerland in Jan, 2001 and Jan, 2000. Bharat is also a Director (Technology & Strategy) with Bharat Oil & Waste Management Ltd. (www.bharatoil.com) based in New Delhi, India.

Previously, Bharat was Founder & CEO of NetGuru Systems, Inc. (www.netguru.com). netGuru (NASDAQ:NGRU) is a developer of Net-Secretary Notification System, eReview Web Collaboration Software and IT Consulting Company. Bharat founded netGuru in January, 1994 and grew it to a $12 million - 110 employee company in 1999. NetGuru was awarded 2nd Fastest (Fast-50) growing technology company in New England, 24th Fastest (Fast-500) Growing Company in US in 1999 with a 5 year revenue growth rate of 10,600%. netGuru was acquired by Research Engineers, Inc. in September, 1999 and combined company renamed as netGuru, Inc. on 02/2000.

Prior to starting NetGuru, Bharat worked as a Project Leader at Cabletron Systems, NH (1991-1993), Brown University, RI (1990), Indian Institute Of Technology - ERNET, Delhi and Wipro (NYSE:WIT), India - (1986-1988).

Bharat is a US Citizen, a second generation entrepreneur from a business family engaged in Petrochemicals and Petroleum Products re-refining & waste management since 1965. Bharat has completed his Advanced Management in Portfolio & Risk Management, Corporate Finance from Harvard University and MS in EE from University of Massachusetts, Dartmouth, MA and BE in Electronics & Communications from Delhi College of Engineering, India.